

Customs

Passport control

Enfos

Customs Officer	Tourist
Good morning. Good evening. Good night. Good afternoon.	Good night. Good evening. Good afternoon. Good morning.
Passport, please.	Here you are.
Why are you visiting England? Why are you visiting Germany? Why are you visiting ... ?	For study. For work. Tourism. Visiting family.
What is your destination?	London. Liverpool. Bohn. ...
Where are you going to stay? Where are you going to work? Where are you going to study?	At
Could you show me your registration information? Your proof of registration? Could you show me your reservation, please? Your visa, please?	Here it is. Here they are. Here you are.
So, (I see) you are going to ... at So, (I see) you are going to ... in You will be going to ... then?	That's right. Yes, that's correct. Yes, we will. Yes. I will.
For how long will you be studying there? For how long will you be working there? For how long are you planning to stay?	I will study there for one year. I will be working there for four months. I will there for
How many months? Ten? For how long?	Twelve months. Half a year. About two weeks. Something like ten days.

Customs Officer	Tourist
Are you going to work? Are you planing to work? How will you pay for your stay and your course?	I've brought a credit card plus some money and traveller's cheques. No, I didn't plan to work. My mother has paid for the course. I was invited to work at I was invited to I was invited for
And after that, what are you going to do after you've finished your course? What are you planning to da after you've finished your job.	I will go back home, to Brazil. Maybe I want to travel around Great Britain. I'm going to travel around Europe.
Where are you going to stay?	When I arrive in London I'm going to look for a hotel. I have a reservation in a boardinghouse. I've reserved a hotel room. I'll stay at a host family.
What's the name and the address of the hotel? What's the name and the address of the boardinghouse?	It's Bartley's Hotel at 264 Grove Lane. Its
[stamps passport] Have a nice stay in Right. You will get a tourist visa for two months. Have a good stay. [stamps passport] Yes, everything OK. Right visa is OK, everything OK. Here you are. [returning passport and other documents] Have a good stay. Enjoy your stay. Goodbye.	Thank you. Goodbye. Goodbye.

Things to declare, nothing to declare

Customs Officer	Tourist
Have you got anything to declare?	No, nothing to declare.
May I ask you what you have in your bags? And what do you have in your suitcase?	Just clothes, personal belongings. Only personal things.
Are you taking any liquor? Did you bring any tobacco or cigarettes? Any food?	No cigarettes. I did bring a bottle of wine and one bottle of cachaça. Some perfume, a gift for the family. Just some gifts.
What is cachaça?	It's a Brazilian brandy / rum / alcoholic beverage / liquor.
One bottle?	Yes, one.
Could you open your suitcase, please? I would like to have a look at it.	Oh, well, of course. Yes, of course.
What have you got under these shirts? What is there in this paper bag? What do you have in this plastic bag? What is this in the sweater sweater?	The bottle of cachaça. My alarm clock. My aftershave. Deodorant. Perfume.
We have information that someone who fits your description is trying to smuggle some toxic substances in. So, if you could come over hear? I'm afraid we will have to search you.	In that case I would like to have a translator (and a lawyer) present.
Well we can get you a translator (and a lawyer) but that may take some time for them/him to get here.	Well, I prefer to have a translator (and a lawyer) here before you search me. Oh, well, for the time being I think I can do without.
Well, nothing here that you should have declared or that you shouldn't have brought. Sorry for the inconvenience.	Can I go then?
Yes you can.	Thank you. Goodby. Goodby.